

Shawn Rogers, Assistant Director
Bluegrass SBDC

Shawn is a Management Consultant and Assistant Center Director of the Bluegrass Small Business Development Center. Prior to joining the SBDC in 2002, Shawn worked full-time in her family business, a retail handmade cherry furniture specialty store. The business, still in operation today, started in 1981 with the assistance of the SBDC. Shawn has industry experience in furniture manufacturing, specialty retailing and the craft industry. She also has expertise in the areas of financial analysis, market, strategic and business planning as well as business research. She is very excited to work for the organization that helped her family start their business.
